

Beatrice Corbett Obituary

CORBETT, BEATRICE BURTON, 91, passed away Tuesday, August 4, 2009.

A devout Christian, she was a long-standing member of Crescent Hill Baptist Church. She was previous co-owner of one of the first clothing consignment shops, Act II, and had a love for making all things beautiful.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Herman; brother, V.W. Burton; and sister, Gay Nell Ford.

She is survived by her cherished daughter and son-in-law, Judy Kaye and Byron Roland; her beloved grandson, Eric Roland (Lane); brother, Robert Burton (Jean); nieces, Betty McClain, Patricia Atchley, Phyllis Burton; nephew, Michael Burton; great nieces and great-nephews; and many loved friends.

Funeral service will be 3 p.m. Sunday, August 9, 2009 at Crescent Hill Baptist Church, 2800 Frankfort Avenue. Visitation is 2-6 p.m. Saturday at Pearson's, 149 Breckenridge Lane. Interment is 11 a.m. Monday, August 10, 2009 in Resthaven Memorial Park.

In lieu of flowers the family request memorial gifts be given to Crescent Hill Baptist Church, 2800 Frankfort Avenue, Louisville, KY 40206.

Family: Thank you for sharing with us a well planned, God honoring, celebration of a life well lived. Now she is checking out her rewards which will surprise her, because she did not do her good deeds for that, but for the greatest of all, to see Jesus face to face.

Bea was a very nice neighbor when I walked down to my bus stop she was all ways there.From PK to 5th grade she made going to school easeir! When I went to vist her she always had a smile on her face. Then she said "do you want a sucker?" I said "yes please" Then she started talking about my dad.She knew me ever since I was a newborn. I LOVE YOU BEA!

Aunt Bee was the epitomy of a Southern Lady. She was loving, kind, generous, opened her beautiful home to anyone, always was interested in other people and their well being and always had a smile on her face even in adversity. She would give her last dollar to someone in need and was the ultimate examnle of Christ-like service and living. I feel incredibly blessed to have had her in mv life for 45 years and am grateful that mv children were able to
